

Insurance just got easy!

We are pleased to announce a new vendor partner to assist our franchisees in acquiring their commercial insurance. After a thorough process to choose the right insurance vendor, Vision Source proudly endorses Arthur J. Gallagher & Co. to provide our franchisees insurance and risk management services.

About Gallagher

Arthur J. Gallagher & Co.

- Founded in 1927 by Arthur J. Gallagher, one of the pioneers of risk management.
- From one office in Chicago, Arthur J. Gallagher & Co. has grown to over 300 offices in 17 countries with revenues over $2.1 billion, making it one of the five largest insurance brokerages in the world.
- Publicly traded (NYSE: AJG), an industry leader still run by its founding family - yet not run like a family business. Instead, we're a company with over 12,000 family members.
- Member of the International Franchise Association
- Innovative leader in the franchise industry providing risk management services through the Franchise Insurance Gateway.

In addition to Gallagher's insurance offering, they will be providing a comprehensive array of risk management resources. These include loss control resources such as loss prevention best practices, preparedness checklists and safety manuals to help mitigate loss in your operation. In addition, dedicated claims management and advocacy representatives will be available to you, to assist with any difficult claims that may occur.

All of these services will be delivered through the Vision Source Franchise Insurance Gateway, powered by Gallagher at no additional cost to you. This online portal will become your one-stop shop for risk management, providing you direct access to the tools and resources that can assist you in managing risk within your operation.
